Once upon a time there was a family named the LaCasse family.

There was Dad, Mom and Jaimason, and a baby sister was on the way.

One winter day Mom went to the hospital and Macie was born.

Macie was a beautiful little girl
with unique cheeks.

I am Macie and here's my story.

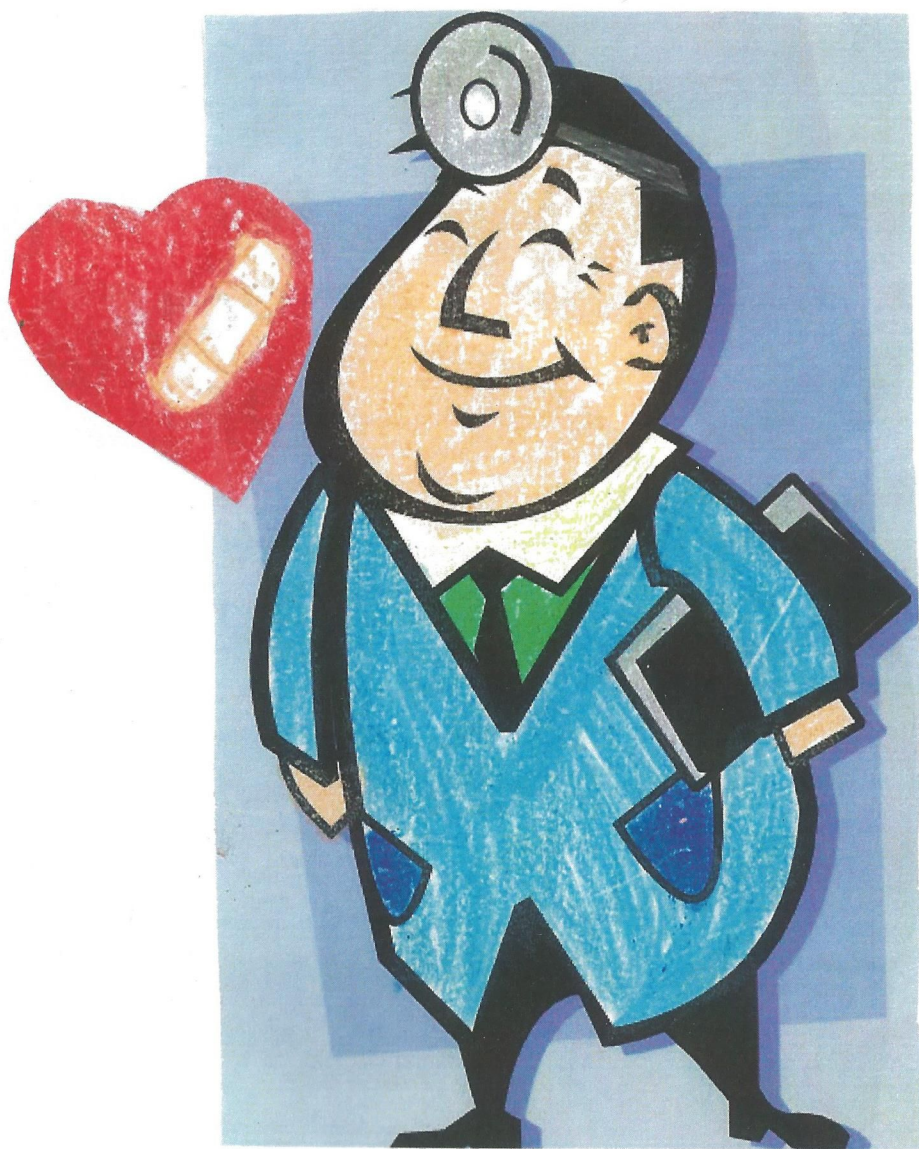

Februarv 2002

My family and my friends prayed for me.

The doctors were able to fix my heart.

As I grow the doctors check my heart often. Every year I get a check-up for my heart and I always get a special picture of my heart, and sometimes special tests. I get lots of popsicles. I get picks and pokes; they want to check my blood for salt and fat.

I am a normal kid and I like to do the same things you do, but sometimes my heart gets tired and needs a break.

My family helps me keep my heart healthy and going.

We are happy to be all together.

That is the story of my heart.

Every year we raise money for Children's Hospital to thank them for helping us.

Thank you for reading our story!
